Numb. 8106.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 30. to Saturday April 3. 1742.

At the Court at St. James's, the First Day of April, 1742.

PRESENT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint his Grace Peregrine Duke of Ancaster and Kesteven, Lord Great Chamberlain of England, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Lincoln, and City of Lincoln and County of the same, his Grace this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

His Majesty having been likewise pleased to appoint Edward Earl of Derby to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Lancaster, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Naples, March 13. On the 26th past Notice came here from Messina, of the Arrival in that Port, on their Return from Constantinople, of the two Merchant Ships hired by the Court to conduct thither the Turkish Minister, and the Chevalier Majo the King's Minister. On the 1st Instant the Queen appeared abroad for the first Time after her lying-in, accompanied by the King in great Formality, and followed by the two young Princesses. They proceeded to the Cathedral Church, and assisted at the Te Deum which was sung on that Occasion, and in the Evening the Cannon of the Castles were discharged, and Illuminations made throughout the City, by the Foreign Ministers, &c. On the 4th a Train of 12 small Brass Field Cannon were sent from this Arsenal on Mules to the King's Army in the Ecclesiastical State, and are to be followed by such another Train. On the 8th Notice came to Court, that the two Ships of War St. Philip and Parthenope, with the Transports under their Convoy, were arrived at Manfredonia on their Way to Ancona, there to receive the King's Orders how to proceed. On the 10th Twenty four Spanish Saddle Horses arrived here from Madrid, which the King of Spain has presented to the King of Naples.

Rome, March 17. The Pope has lately held a Consultation with seven Cardinals, to take the last Resolution with Regard to the Articles of the Ecclesiastical Immunities long since depending with the Court of Turin, the King of Sardinia having of late renewed some Pretensions, insisting upon the same Conveniences as were lately granted to the King of the Two Sicilies. On the 16th Prince Mansfelt, Minister from the Elector of Bavaria, as Emperor, arrived here to reside at this Court.

Florence, March 18, N. S. On the 12th and 14th two Columns of about 700 Horse each, out of the Spanish Regiments la Reine, Sagunto, and Royal Carabineers Cavalry, passed under the Walls of this City from la Spezia on their March towards Arezzo, to join the rest of the Army under the Command of M. de Montemar in the Ecclesiastical State. They were followed by 300 Michelets, and had with them 12 small Pieces of Brass Field Cannon. A Party of about 400 Spanish Horse only are left at Sestri di Levante in the Genoese State, with Directions to remain there till farther Orders. Deserters out of the Spanish Troops continually arrive here in great Numbers; all the Germans are received; many enter willingly into the Great Duke's Service, and have been incorporated into the Regiment of Lorrain Guards, and the Tuscan Regiment, both at Leghorn: Others have been sent privately into Lombardy. This Affair, as the Spanish Army diminishes so greatly, occasions repeated Complaints on the Part of M. de Montemar to the Regency, especially on account of those pretended by the Spaniards to have been debauched by the Great Duke's Officers, when on March near the Walls of this City; but as yet the Government has not taken the Resolution to deliver them, alledging, that as the Pass for those Troops so near the Town was not granted, but protested against as an Act of Violence, M. de Montemar has no Right to insist upon the delivering them up. M. de Montemar has removed his Head Quarters to a Place called La Cattolica, a small Distance from Pesaro, on account of its being a more convenient Situation for an Encampment of Troops. Last Night an Express arrived here from Padoua, with Notice, that the Princess Eleonora died there on the 16th Instant; she was Widow of the Cardinal de Medici, and Sister to the present Duke of Guastalla.

Petersbourg, March 17. Lieutenant Colonel Lagerkrantz, a Swedish Officer, and the Chevalier Crepi, arrived here the 14th from Finland, under the Conduct of a Russian Officer, being sent, as is said, by General Lowenhaupt, to demand that the Cessation of Arms might be continued: Whereupon a General Council of War was held, wherein it was resolved to carry on the War with Vigour, before Sweden be in a Condition to transport any more Troops. Felt Marshal Lacy sets out to Morrow for Wybourg, and a great Train of Artillery is to follow in a few Days. M. de Lagerkrantz, and the Chevalier Grepi, are preparing to set out for Moscow. Yesterday's News bring an Account, that 200 Dragoons, and 800 Cossacks, under the Command of Count Isembourg, had already put to the Sword all they met with in their Way to the Gates of Friderickstham; put to Flight the advanced Posts, and brought back a great Number of Prisoners.

Turin, March 21. The King of Sardinia set out Yesterday Morning by the Way of Alexandria and Tortona, for Plaisance, where he proposed to be this Day at Noon. He is attended by the young Prince of Carignan, who begins his first Campaign near his Sardinian Majesty, without any Command in the Army.

Vienna, March 28, N. S. This Court has received Advice, that the Generals Berenclau and Lucaisi, having been sent over the Danube at Dechendorf, had marched to Cham, as if with an Intention to throw themselves into Bohemia or or into Voigtland, but turned on a ſudden with a Deſign to ſurprize Count Torring at Phoring ſituated upon the Danube between Ratisbon and Ingolſtadt; that the Bavarian General had juſt Time to ſave himſelf under the Cannon of the latter, but that the Auſtrians had ſeiz'd at the ſaid Phoring, Kelheim, Nieuſtadt and Vorburg, all lying upon the Danube between Ratisbon and Ingolſtadt, ſeveral conſiderable Magazines of all Sorts; that Colonel Menzel had paſſed the Danube at the ſame Time at Hochſtadt with 1500 Horſe; had found and diſperſed ſeveral Undertakers and Contractors of Proviſions of all Sorts, at and about Nordlingen, and that theſe two Bodies were to join afterwards at Weiſſenberg, and to be followed by Marſhal Khevenhuller with the Army, amounting to above 24000 Men. In the mean while his Quarters are ſaid to be full of Deputies and Agents from the ſeveral Princes, States and Cities of Suabia, and even of Franconia, to offer their reſpective Neutralities. The 200,000 Florins exacted of the Dutchy of Neuburg are paid, but depoſited by Count Khevenhuller, in order to be reſtored upon the Elector Palatine's exact Obſervation of the Neutrality.

Kelheim, March 28. On Eaſter-Day we marched towards Ingolſtadt, to look for the Enemy, who had all drawn together there, and we followed them upon their Heels to attack them. Field Marſhal Baron Berenclau went up cloſe to the Fortreſs to reconnoitre it, whereupon the Enemy, to about 100 Men, ſallied, but our Huſſars, who were at Hand, eſpecially 40 of the Regiment of Adel, immediately marched forth, and, notwithſtanding the ſuperior Number of the Enemy, and the Cannon of the Fortreſs, attacked them ſo briskly, Sabre in Hand, that they did not look for the ſame Way they came out, but went directly over the Paliſadoes, leaving ſome dead behind. We had above 100 Cannon Shot fired at us, but not one Man was hurt. The Place is now blocked up by Major General Count Lucheſi, who has delivered the Enemy's ſick and diſabled, amounting to 1500 Men, to General Santini, by whom they have been diſtributed into the Convents. That Gentleman, as well as the French Commandant General de Villemure, have requeſted ſome Proviſions might be granted them for their own Table. Field Marſhal Count Torring, with the Remains of the Bavarian Troops he could gather, particularly Cavalry, haſtened from Ingolſtadt, and poſted himſelf between Donawerth and Rain. The Enemy made another Sally from Ingolſtadt laſt Night, but were repulſed by our Huſſars. We have taken 50 Veſſels on the Rivers.

Kelheim, March 29. Two Companies of Grenadiers of the Enemy have deſerted, and are come over to us. Field Marſhal Count Khevenhuller intended to remove his Head Quarters as Yeſterday to Mosburg, in order to be nearer to the Enemy, from whence he is to remove them farther to Pfaffenhofen. Proviſions, eſpecially Flower, are very ſcarce in Ingolſtadt, which gives us hopes of being ſoon able to reduce it.

Copenhagen, April 3, N. S. On the 29th paſt a new built Veſſel of Forty Guns, called the Crown Yacht, was launched here in Preſence of the Court. The 31ſt was the Anniverſary of the Prince's Birth-day, when his Royal Highneſs entered upon the 20th Year of his Age; but it paſſed without any extraordinary Celebration: Several Promotions had been expected, but none were made; only Mademoiſelle Beleywitz, the firſt Lady of the Queen's Court, was then inveſted with the Order of the Convent of Walloe. The Carouſel not having been in Readineſs to be perform'd on the Occaſion abovementioned, is deferred till next Saturday.

Dreſden, April 4, N. S. People here appear at preſent very uneaſy at having no News from their Army in Moravia, concluding that their Couriers muſt have been intercepted, and having certain Information that a Party of Auſtrian Huſſars met with a Squadron of their Horſe, of Rheichenberg's Regiment, in a narrow Defileé, and made the Lieutenant Colonel Fluch, who commanded it, as well as every Officer and private Man, Priſoners of War. His Poliſh Majeſty intends to be at Frauſtadt by the 12th of May, in order to hold a Senatus Conſilium. His Majeſty's Abſence from hence will ſcarce exceed 10 Days. The Day that Colonel Neubour ſet out for Piſeck for the ſettling of a Cartel with the Auſtrians for the Exchange of Priſoners, his Poliſh Majeſty was pleaſed, on Account of his ſingular Merit, to appoint him Quarter Maſter General to the Army, with the Title of Major General, and with a conſiderable additional Pay.

Hambourg, April 6, N. S. Count Sparre who had for ſome Days diſcontinued to enliſt Sailors for the Swediſh Fleet, has again hoiſted his Flag for that Purpoſe. And we hear that the Ruſſian Army in Finland will ſpeedily receive a Reinforcement of Troops draughted from thoſe which are at preſent in Garriſon at Petersbourg; that Hoſtilities will recommence forthwith; and that, in all Appearance, the War between thoſe Northern Crowns will be proſecuted on both Sides with the utmoſt Vigour.

In the Gazette of Tueſday laſt, in the Article from Berlin, for Ratisbon, read Ratibor.

Notice is hereby given, that the Yearly General Meeting of the Proprietors in the Invention for raiſing Water out of all Mines, &c. by Fire, will be held, purſuant to their Articles, on Thurſday the 13th Day of May next, at Apothecaries Hall in Black Fryers, at Nine in the Morning.

Maſter of the Rolls.

Tueſday the 23d Day of March, in the 15th Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Second, 1741, between Richard Wyat, Eſq; Plaintiff; Ann Shakerley, William Wood, and others, Defendants.

UPON Motion this Day made unto this Court by Mr. Floyer, being of Councel with the Plaintiff, it was alledged that the Plaintiff on the 7th Day of February 1736, filed his Bill in this Court againſt the Defendants, as by the Six Clerk's Certificate appears, and took out Proceſs of Subpœna againſt the Defendants, returnable the 12th of February laſt, requiring them to appear to anſwer the ſame; but the Defendant William Wood hath not ſo done; that upon Inquiry at the ſaid Defendant's uſual Place of Abode, he is not to be found to be ſerved with ſuch Subpœna, but is gone from thence, and doth abſcond himſelf to avoid being ſerved therewith, as by Affidavit alſo appeared; And the ſaid Certificate and Affidavit being read, this Court doth Order, That the ſaid Defendant William Wood do appear to the Plaintiff's Bill on or before the firſt Day of Eaſter Term next.
